

Are you and your family starting to think about college or maybe already got started but had lots of questions? Are these questions starting to come up “which schools to apply to” or “How do we write a compelling college essay” or just unsure where to begin with the college admissions process. On average, high school students only get 38 minutes of college guidance while in high school.<sup>1</sup>

What to consider

Collegewise is the nation’s largest college counseling organization. They work with families and students in grades 8 through 12 to provide personal support to help you and your family navigate the college and admissions process. Collegewise is one option to help take the stress out of college planning.

Key features

- Personal support from expert college counselors throughout the college admission process – to lessen the stress for you as a parent
- Each student is matched to a specific counselor that will provide the best expertise for your student’s situation
- Exclusive offer for Fidelity users: 10% off comprehensive admissions and essay packages
- Access to exclusive webinars and customized content for your student’s grade
